2. Disclosure of personal data

We may disclose personal data belonging to you or your insured persons for the purposes set out in Section 1 to these parties:

- (a) your insurance agents, insurance broker, association, employer or group policyholder;
- (b) medical professionals and institutions;
- (c) insurers and reinsurers;
- (d) local or overseas service providers to provide us with services such as printing, mail distribution, data storage, data entry, marketing and research, disaster recovery or emergency assistance services;
- (e) debt collection agencies;
- (f) dispute resolution parties;
- (g) parties that assist us to investigate, administer and adjudicate claims;
- (h) financial institutions;
- (i) credit reference agencies;
- (j) industry associations; and
- (k) regulators, law enforcement and government agencies.

3. Consequence of withdrawing consent to the collection, use and disclosure of personal data

You may refuse or withdraw your consent for us to collect, use or disclose your personal data and your insured persons' personal data by giving us reasonable notice so long as there are no legal or contractual restrictions preventing you from doing so. For example, you may withdraw your consent for your personal data to be used for marketing purposes, and this withdrawal will not affect our ability to provide you with the products and services that you asked for or have with us. But if you withdraw your consent for us to use your personal data for your insurance matters, this will affect our ability to provide you with the products and services that you asked for or have with us, including preventing us from keeping your insurance cover in force or properly assessing and processing your claim. Withdrawing such consent will require you to surrender or terminate all your policies with us.

4. Access and correction rights

You can request access to any personal data of yours that we have, and request to know how it is being used and disclosed for the last 12 months to the extent your right is allowed by law. If we allow you access, we may charge you a reasonable fee. You also have the right to request correction of your personal data.

You may make your request to withdraw your consent, access or correct your personal data by writing to:

The Data Protection Officer, Income Centre, 75 Bras Basah Road, Singapore 189557. Alternatively, you can email to: DPO@income.com.sg
