Section D: Personal data collection statement

Income recognises its obligations under the Personal Data Protection Act 2012 (PDPA) which include the collection, use and disclosure of personal data for the purpose for which an individual has given consent to.

The personal data collected by Income includes all personal data provided in this form, or in any document provided, or to be provided to us by you or your insured persons or from other sources, for the purpose of this insurance application or transaction. It includes all personal data for us to evaluate or administer this application or transaction. For example, if you are applying for an insurance policy, in addition to the personal data provided in the application form, the personal data will also include any subsequent information we collect on health or financial situation, or any information that is necessary for us to decide whether to insure and on what terms to insure, such as test results, medical examination results, and health records from medical practitioners or other insurance companies.

You may not alter any of the wording in this 'Personal data collection statement'. Any attempt to do so will be of no effect.

1. Purpose of collection

We may collect and use the personal data to:

- (a) carry out identity checks;
- (b) communicate on purposes relating to your application or policy under the Dependants' Protection Insurance Scheme (DPS);
- (c) decide whether to insure or continue to insure you under DPS;
- (d) provide ongoing services and respond to your inquiries or instructions pertaining to your application or policy under DPS;
- (e) make or obtain payments pertaining to your application or policy under DPS;
- (f) investigate and settle claims pertaining to your policy under DPS;
- (g) recover any debt owed to us pertaining to your application or policy under DPS;
- (h) detect and prevent fraud, unlawful or improper activities;
- (i) coach employees and monitor for quality assurance;
- (j) reinsure risks and for reinsurance administration pertaining to your application or policy under DPS; and
- (k) comply with all applicable laws, including reporting to regulatory and industry entities.

2. Disclosure of personal data

We may disclose personal data belonging to you and your insured persons for the purposes set out in Section 1 above to these parties:

- (a) medical professionals and institutions;
- (b) insurers and reinsurers;
- (c) local or overseas service providers to provide us with services such as printing, mail distribution, data storage, data entry, disaster recovery or emergency assistance services;
- (d) debt collection agencies;
- (e) dispute resolution parties;
- (f) parties that assist us to investigate, administer and adjudicate claims;
- (g) financial institutions;
- (h) credit reference agencies;
- (i) industry associations; and
- (j) regulators, law enforcement and government agencies.

3. Consequence of withdrawing consent to the collection, use and disclosure of personal data

You may refuse or withdraw your consent for us to collect, use or disclose your personal data and your insured persons' personal data by giving us reasonable notice so long as there are no legal or contractual restrictions preventing you from doing so. For example, you may withdraw your consent for your personal data to be used for marketing purposes, and this withdrawal will not affect our ability to provide you with the products and services that you asked for or have with us.

But if you withdraw your consent for us to use your personal data for your insurance matters, this will affect our ability to provide you with the products and services that you asked for or have with us, including preventing us from keeping your insurance cover in force or properly assessing and processing your claim. Withdrawing such consent may result in the termination of your DPS policy.

4. Access and correction rights

You can request access to any personal data of yours that we have, and request to know how it is being used and disclosed for the last 12 months to the extent your right is allowed by law. You also have the right to request correction of your personal data.

You may make your request to withdraw your consent, access or correct your personal data by writing to:

The Data Protection Officer, Income Centre, 75 Bras Basah Road, Singapore 189557. Alternatively, you can email to: DPO@income.com.sg

Section E: Declaration and authorisation

I authorise the Central Provident Fund Board to deduct premium(s) from my Ordinary/Special account in accordance with the provisions of the Central Provident Fund Act (Chapter 36), and the regulations made thereunder and as amended from time to time and subject to all terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Central Provident Fund Board from time to time.

I authorise the Central Provident Fund Board to disclose/seek information on a confidential basis to/from my insurer(s) such information relating to:

- i) payment of premiums due under this proposal, including the deduction of premiums from my Ordinary/Special Account; and
- ii) the making of refunds under this proposal, as Central Provident Fund Board shall reasonably consider appropriate.

I declare that the information provided by me in this form is true and correct and I have not withheld any material information, whether entered in by me or on my behalf.

I confirm that I understand and agree to the 'Personal data collection statement'.

I agree and authorise any medical source, insurance office and/or organisation to release to Income, and Income to release to any medical source and/or insurance office, any relevant information concerning me at any time, irrespective of whether the proposal is accepted by Income.

Without prejudice to the generality of the above statement, I consent to the transfer and disclosure, at any time and without notice or liability to me of any medical information on me in the insurer's possession to the Central Provident Fund Board for:

- (a) the purpose of making of a claim under the DPS or any other insurance scheme referred to in the Central Provident Fund Act (Chapter 36) which I may be insured under; or
- (b) any purpose connected with the administration or operation of the accounts maintained by the Board for me under the Central Provident Fund Act (Chapter 36).

I agree that this consent shall not be affected by any subsequent physical or mental disorder, disability or incapacitation which I may suffer from. In addition, I agree that this consent shall remain valid notwithstanding my death.

I acknowledge and agree that Income may at their absolute discretion:

- a. reinstate my Policy as stipulated here (the Policy) with effect from the date the Policy expired; or
- b. issue a new Policy for my DPS cover (the New Policy) and withdraw my cover for the Bonus Sum Assured (if any) that may have been declared under the Policy, and I agree to be bound by the terms of the reinstatement of the Policy or the issuance of the New Policy as the case may be.

Signature or thumb print of policyholder

Date (dd/mm/yyyy)

The reinstatement application is subject to underwriting by Income.
